MANY PRISONERS

CONVICTED AT PRESENT TERM FOR VARIOUS OFFENSES.

They Were Marched to Station Handcuffed in Pairs.

From Friday's Daily Sun: The prisoners convicted of various offenses during the present term of the Circuit Court were taken Thursday to the county and State prisons, where they will be required to serve their respective terms unless escape, the pardoning board or death relieves them.

The prisoners attracted a great deal of attention as they were marched to the station handcuffed in pairs, and for several minutes before going aboard the train were the center of curiosity, especially since there was "a woman in the case."

As is always the case, some of the prisoners took their fate very hard, and were visibly emotional, while others looked upon the situation as a matter of course, and appeared
